THE MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF LUTHERAN ENTREPRENEURS

info@lutheranentrepreneurs.com

Inactive members

Like other organizations, we too have had a handful of people who came to one or more meetings and were very enthusiastic about the group, but we have not seen them for a few months. If you know any of these people, please invite them to return. We would like to find out if they have concerns about Lutheran Entrepreneurs that can be addressed while we are still a growing organization.

February presentation

This month's speaker will be Lutheran Entrepreneurs' founding member and Co-Treasurer, Marlys Nash, a fifteen year mortgage lending professional.

Her number one goal is to design a loan program or reverse mortgage program to meet your specific needs.

Invitations

Before you leave the meeting, please take a handful of business card-sized invitations and keep them on-hand in your briefcase or portfolio, planner, wallet, glove box, etc, to hand out personally to people at conferences, to colleagues, fellow church members, neighbors and friends. Try to hand out at least one card every week.

Recruitment brochure

We need your input for a tri-fold brochure to be distributed to those who are interested in joining. Please call or send me an e-mail stating why you joined, how your business has benefitted, how your participation has affected your daily business activity, how the vision or mission statement match your business goals or life philosophy. Thank you.

Quote for February, 2009

"Entrepreneurs and their small enterprises are responsible for almost all the economic growth in the United States."

Ronald Reagan

A peek at March

Member Stacey Jacobs, Financial Associate of Thrivent Financial, will make the presentation on March 18th.

Member directory

It is available at meetings if you have not received a copy.
